

I oppose the use of power lines for broadband internet connection because of the proven inteference to the Amateur Radio Service. This interference will result in reducing the effectiveness of the Amateur Radio Service for emergency communication at a time, post 9/11, when the country needs it the most.